As years went on the Kings County Wheel men was looked upon as the leading club of city, and set the pace for others. It is now one of the strongest clubs in the country. It is a member of the Wheelmen's Racing

The Club has about 230 members, 130 of them being active ones. John Bensinger, the President, is connected with the Standard Oil Company, and holds a position of trust in Mr. efeller's private office. Mr. Bensinger is also engaged in the bicycle business, having with two of his clubmates a place at 1311 Bedford avenue. Mr. Bensinger is a fine athlete. He is on both the racing and road teams.

Pernaps the two best known among the Club's racers are C. F. and W.F. Murphy, two very fast riders, who have lately been robbled up by the New York Athletic Club, although they retain membership in the Kings County Club, and in many events they carry the brown and cardinal of their old Club as well as the Mercury foot of the New Yorkers. The Captain of the Kings County Wheelmen is D. McLean. He is an admirable coach, and devotes all his spare time to drilling his Club's racing and road teams, to whose success he has greatly contributed. The records of the teams speak for themselves. The road team has captured nearly all of the Irvington-Milburn road races, and its members have run first and second in that event more than once. This is one of the Club'stchief prides, and it has almost come to look upon this race unquestionably as its own each year.

runs, and they have adopted a rule which inspires each man to great exertions. The Club issue a mileage card each month to nembers. The card contains the distances from the club-house to each of the chief bicycle runs. Each member keeps a record of the miles he has covered during the nonth, and gives it to the captain. These records are preserved, and at the expiration of a year a gold medal is awarded those who have covered 5,000 miles or more during the year, and a sliver medal to those who cover ever 2 000 miles. In this manner interest in wheeling is maintained to a remarkable de-

The Club's house, at 1255 Bedford avenue, is a beautiful building and is well adapted for its use. It is elegantly fitted throughout. The basement is used for bowling, while the ground floor is used exclusively as a wheelroom. On the first floor are the billiard parlor and lockers. The parlor and reception-rooms are on the next floor, and the top floor has a magnificently equipped gymnasium and
